DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 12-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter, which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. Applicant's disclosure does not appear to teach any other microstructural differences other than porosity, which imparts the differences in thermal conductivity and strength. Therefore, Applicant is only enabled for a microstructure that is different in porosity. Independent claims should reflect that the porosity is the microstructural difference.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claim 27 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by European Patent Application Publication no. 0 605 196, EP '196.

Art Unit: 1775

EP '196 disclose the deposition of a ceramic thermal barrier coating comprised of a first layer having zero porosity and a second layer formed on the first layer having a greater porosity. The layers are deposited using powdered materials, (columns 3-4, lines 41-37), meeting the limitations of claim 27.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 1 and 3-10 are allowed over the prior art of record. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The closest prior art of record while teaching the use of a two layered thermal barrier coating having a lower layer that is more dense than the upper layer, does not teach or suggest the combination of the coating in addition to the upper layer having the pore limitations as exemplified by Applicant.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments, see pages 6-9, filed May 5, 2006, with respect to claims 1-11 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection has been withdrawn with regards to the art rejections made over claims 1-26. The 112 rejection of claims 1-26 has been withdrawn with regards to claims 1-11. The rejection has been maintained with regards to claims 1-27 for the reasons set forth above.

7. Applicant's arguments filed May 5, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive with regards to the 112-enablement rejection over claims 12-26. Applicant contends that an amendment to claim 12, recites the limitation "that the porosity of the first layer is different from that of the second layer". There has been no such amendment to claim 12. As such, the rejection of claims 12-23 under 35 USC 112 paragraph 1 is maintained.

Conclusion

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
